Remembering Molly Blackwell As announced last week, a service of committal for Molly was held at the Crematorium on Monday 1st July, conducted by Rev Sue Conroy. Following that service, Jim and his family have now decided not to go ahead with a memorial service. Jim wants us all to know that he very much values the love and prayers they have received from people at St Paul's. Please continue to hold this family in your prayers.

Time for Prayer

As we pray for other people, charities and other organisations, we might forget to pray for ourselves, so this week let's bring our own concerns to God. Pray for people we are worried about, pray for things not going well in our lives, pray for forgiveness and healing. Whatever burdens we are carrying, let us hand them over to the Lord. Please continue praying for Jim Blackwell and all the family as they mourn the death of Molly, Julie Anscombe, Jean Franklin, Maureen Olashore, Neil Roberts, Marcy, and others with needs known to ourselves.

Methodist Church Guidelines state that permission must be received from a person before their name is put on the Church prayer list. Please ensure that you have such permission.
